Project Summary

The common challenge of the programme area tackled by the project concerns the lack of services and barrier-free transport and the lack of harmonisation among Countries in the field of accessibility of disabled passengers, focusing on the disparities in innovation level & uptake of advanced technologies in the DR. The overall project objective is the improvement of transport accessibility (air, water & urban transport) in the DR for all disabilities by creating innovative services, and providing fully accessible Digital Travel Information Services (DTIS) through the establishment of a Smart Network of transport facilities, making a change and contributing to reduce the innovation gap across the DR. The main outputs will be: -Strategy for accessible transport in the Danube Region -Smart Transport Network for PRM (Passengers with reduced mobility) digital accessibility data -Customised pilot participatory actions -Replication package The TGs that will benefit from the outputs are: -Airport, ports, urban transport providers and authorities -Visual & hearing impaired and PRM associations -Local, Regional and National public authorities Through the capitalization of DANOVA and the new DANOVA NEXT solutions, the partnership will foster territorial integration & innovation in the DR, which could not be reached without a transnational approach needed to: -tackle the disparity, lack of services and barrier-free transport in the DR for people with disabilities -tackle the issues connected to the development of DTIS related to transport accessibility -develop a harmonized approach to transport accessibility in the DR for strengthening inclusiveness and social innovation DANOVA NEXT will tackle 3 main innovation aspects: -physical accessibility of transport in the DR for all disabilities through innovative services -provision of data on networks' accessibility through fully accessible DTIS -creation of a Smart Network of transport facilities working on the sharing of data, practices & services in the DR
